AS A SAPIENITE YOU GET

Thematic Classroom

Schools play a pivotal role in defining one's childhood. When we ask any grown-up adult about his best five memories, atleast three of them would be of school time. Hence we at Sapiens have walked an extra mile to design classroom with interactive themes and models that learning becomes fun.

Value Room for Emotional Quotient

Development of a child's EQ is important as development of his IQ. However, the ignorance on this takes a heavy toll from the individual who has not learned to manage his emotions. At Sapiens we have a specially thoughtfully curated value room where an atmosphere is created where a child can walk in any time, sit relax, meditate, read a book, talk to the counselor and unwinds.

Child Counselor

Teaching children is not a routine job, every child is different. Every day he is walking into the school with a different mindset and hence his/her ability to understand would not be same. As a child there might be some emotional help, he is seeking but he might not be able to give words to it. Our child counselor is professionally equipped to understand. We focus on overall development of child and hence his / her emotional well being is equally important to us as his academic know how and physical health.
